

VANESSA CARLISLE

PROFILE:

Published writer of both fiction and nonfiction. Teacher of composition, literature, and creative writing. Editorial consultant for both corporate and individual clients.

EDUCATION:

M.F.A Creative Writing (Fiction) Emerson College, Boston, MA Dec 2006
Thesis: A Crack In Everything, a novel

B. A. Psychology Reed College, Portland, OR May 2001
Phi Beta Kappa
Recipient of Initiative Grant for Undergraduate Research
Recipient of three academic merit-based scholarships

PUBLICATIONS:

“Over Drinks.” What If? Exercises for Writers. Pamela Painter and Anne Bernays.
Longman, 2009.

“Ancestors Living in Casitas.” Haggard and Halloo. March 30, 2009.
www.haggardandhalloo.com.

“Jennifer Rice: Making Connections.” Rails to Trails Magazine. Spring/Summer 2009.
14-15.

“The Quietest Picnic.” Juked. November 11, 2008. www.juked.com

“Jim Harrison: A Mighty Pen.” Rails to Trails Magazine. Winter 2008. 14-15.

“Inside Joke.” Boink: College Sex by the People Having It, by the eds. of Boink Magazine.
Grand Central Publishing, 2008. 143-149.

“Twins.” WordRiot. September 2007. www.wordriot.com

“So You Wanna Be a Stripper?” as Bella Sapphire. Boink Magazine. Sept 2006. 13-14.

“Forever A Dame.” NinthLetter. Spring/Summer 2006. Vol. 3, No. 1. 129-134.

“Last Days in L.A.” as Bella Sapphire. Sliptongue. February 2006. www.sliptongue.com

“The Flying Butcher.” Insolent Rudder. August 2004. www.insolentrudder.com

PUBLICATIONS CONT'D:

“Creative Dreams Interview” in Make Your Creative Dreams Real, by SARK.
Fireside Books, 2004. 160-161.

“How to Belly Dance” in GirlWise: How to be Confident, Capable, Cool, and In Control, by Julia DeVillers. Prima Publishing, 2002.162-163.

*I Was My Mother's Bridesmaid: Young Adults Talk About Thriving in a Blended
Family*. With Erica Carlisle. Wildcat Canyon Press, 1999.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Adjunct Instructor Emerson College, September 2005-May 2008

- Selected for participation in Learning Portals Pilot Project
- Selected to teach in New Pathways Writer's Block

Adjunct Instructor Wheelock College, September 2007-May 2008

- Recruited for First Year Seminar curriculum development

Adjunct Instructor Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences,
January 2007-May 2007

- Classroom Instructor and Writing Center Tutor

COURSES TAUGHT:

Expository Writing

- Designed original syllabus for use with The Brief Arlington Reader (Bedford).
- Assigned four expository argument essays culminating in a Writer's Portfolio.
- Routinely met one-on-one for paper conferences with students.
- Encouraged reflective writing by requiring all essays to be submitted with a self-evaluative cover letter.

Research Writing

- Designed original, interdisciplinary syllabus with theme: Infamy: The Cultural Construction of Deviance, using Emerson College's "Case and Frame" approach. Readings included Lolita (Nabokov), selections from The Frenzy of Renown: Fame and Its History (Leo Braudy), Images of Deviance and Social Control: A Sociological History (Stephen Pfohl), and On the Pleasure of Hating (William Hazlitt).
- Worked closely with reference librarians to foster students' independence in library research and MLA citation proficiency.
- Managed student-selected research projects both in class and one-on-one meetings. Required continual student self-evaluations.
- Required students to deliver oral defenses for faculty panel; served on multiple research defense panels for other sections.

Introduction to Literature

- Designed original syllabus for use with Literature: The Human Experience (Bedford).

- Assigned essays: basic literary analysis, compare/contrasting, and beginning library research.
- Prepared students for graduation prerequisite essay exam.

Critical Reading and Writing (I and II)

- Designed original syllabus for use with The Writer's Presence: A Pool of Readings (Bedford).
- Assigned essays: personal narrative, literary analysis, persuasion and argument, public policy, and research, all culminating in a Writer's Portfolio.

First Year Seminar

- Designed original, themed syllabus for course emphasizing the acquisition of college-level skills in critical thinking, reading, and writing.
- Participated in curriculum development meetings with FYS faculty

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Sociological, psychological, literary, and historical approaches to the definition and study of social deviance, esp. tropes involving the modern sex industry
- History of censorship in 20th cen. American literature and film
- Theoretical approaches to narratives of: travel, subculture, and gender and sexuality

PRESENTATIONS/READINGS:

Forever A Dame—Emerson College Graduate Reading Series October 2006

Know Me and I'll Love You Back; Investigating The Marriage Shift—Poster presentation, Society for Personality and Social Psychology Annual Conference, February 2002

RELATED/ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Writing Programs Administrator Wheelock College, Septbmer 2007-May 2008

- Developed new methods for grading, record keeping, and reporting scores of the Wheelock Literacy and Communication Exam (WLCE), a graduation requirement for all students.
- Lead WLCE preparation workshops and tutored students one-on-one.
- Worked with Director of Writing to develop new sections of the WLCE.

Editorial Consultant May 2006-present

- Maintain weekly contact with corporate and private clients, offer editorial feedback on fiction, nonfiction, and screenwriting projects.

Prose Reader Ploughshares Magazine, September 2006-May 2008

Prose Reader Redivider: A Journal of New Literature and Art, September 2004-May 2006